ISF Event consent agreement

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PARTICIPANTS

As a condition for accreditation for a sports event organised by (or on behalf of), or authorised or recognised by the International School Sport Federation ('ISF'), with registered address at Archimedesstraat 59, 1000 Brussels and CBE number 0476.233.673, certain personal data of the participant is required.

ISF is committed to protect your privacy and shall process such personal data in accordance with the European legislation in this regard, in particular the General Data Protection Regulation (Reg. 2016/679).

- What personal data will be processed?

The following personal data of the participant is collected and shall be processed in the course of the organisation of the sport event:

- Full name
- Gender
- Date of birth (age)
- Copy of ID or passport
- School
- Pictures/videos
- E - mail
- FIDE ID (optional)
- Premium Chess user name (optional)
- Credit/debit card information

In addition, the email of the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the participants is collected.

Should the participant fail to provide necessary requested information, ISF or the Local Organizing Committee will not be responsible for any outcomes related to this missing information.

- For what purposes and based on what legal grounds are the personal data processed?

The personal data is processed for the following purposes:

- to check whether the participant meets the requirements for participation as determined by the ISF;
- to contact the parents or legal guardians should this be required by the circumstances;
- to facilitate the participant's participation in the event;
- to inform about events outcomes (results, survey, links);
- safety, health and security reasons;
- payment processing

The processing of the participants' personal data by the ISF is necessary to organise the event and guarantee the participants' participation (i.e. necessary to comply with its contractual and legal obligations). The processing may also be based on the legitimate interests of the ISF, for example, where it required for safety, health and security reasons or if necessary, in the event of a dispute, to initiate or defend against legal claims.

ISF is committed to process the personal data only to carry-out the purposes as described above, in any event, only in the context of the organisation of the event. ISF will not use the personal data for any other purpose.

- Who has access to these personal data or who will they be transferred to?

General organisation

The personal data is uploaded on the Electronic Registration and Accreditation System of ISF, known as the ERAS platform. The personal data on the ERAS platform are managed by our IT service providers and are accessible by the organiser (Organising Committee) of the ISF sport event to which the participant participates. The IT providers will use the personal data to create result lists, game schedules, participant profiles, answer requests, etc. The organiser shall process the personal data organisation of the event and to enable the participant's participation to such event.

A contract is concluded with all of these recipients, providing the necessary guarantees under data protection law. In the event such provider or organiser is established in a country outside the European Economic Area without adequate level of protection, additional contractual safeguards are taken by concluding EC Standard Clauses. If you have questions related to these transfers or would like to receive a copy of the EC Standard Clauses concluded, please contact us by sending an e-mail to: admin@isfsports.org.

Should this be required by law, the ISF can also transfer your personal data to official authorities when requested.

Pictures/videos

Without expectation of compensation or other remuneration, now or in the future, I hereby give my consent to the International School Sport Federation and its affiliates, to use my image and/or any interview statements from me in its publications, advertising or other media activities (including the Internet). This consent includes, but is not limited to:

1. Permission to interview, film, photograph, tape, or otherwise make a video reproduction of me and/or record my voice;

2. Permission to use my name; and

3. Permission to use quotes from the interview(s), the film, photograph(s), tape(s) or reproduction(s) of me, and/or recording of my voice, in part or in whole, in its publications, in newspapers, magazines and other print media, on television, radio and electronic media (including the Internet), in theatrical media and/or in mailings for educational and awareness.

- How long will the personal data be retained?

The personal data is deleted six months after the end of the event, unless the law would require otherwise or, as the case may be, the personal data is needed to handle a dispute or question of an official authority after the end of these six months.

In the event you consented to the processing of your pictures/videos, these personal data will be retained as long as they are relevant and useful in the context of advertising and marketing campaigns When outdated they will be no longer used and deleted, unless it is decided that they are further processed for archiving purposes.

- What are my rights with regards to the processing of the personal data?

You are entitled to access your personal data and have them corrected when inaccurate or incomplete, to have them erased and to object to the processing thereof or have the processing thereof restricted, when the legal conditions thereto are met. Please note that the ISF, the organiser, and as the case may be, other partners helping out with the organisation of the event, may not be able to comply with our/their legal or contractual obligations (and cannot be held liable in this regard), such as refusing the participation in the event.

To the extent that the processing is based upon consent, you can withdraw your consent at any time.

You are entitled to obtain a copy of your personal data (in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format) and to have your personal data transferred to another controller (right to data portability).

- Who can I speak to when I have questions or want to exercise my rights?

If you have a question or complaint regarding the processing of your personal data or you would like to exercise your rights outlined above, the following persons can be contacted:

Before the event	The OC's designated manager whose contact is in the bulletins
During the event	The ISF Contact details: sport@isfsports.org
After the event

If before or during the event you feel that your national school sport authority or the organiser's designated manager is not capable or willing to answer your questions or address your concerns, you may contact the ISF on the following e-mail address: sport@isfsports.org

The Participant has the right to make a formal complaint to the relevant authorities on data protection should they deem their rights have not been respected.
